

DO IT WITH A SMILE

Written in honour of The Queen's smile;

Queen Elizabeth 11

Twinkle, Twinkle

Twin eyes

Twitch, Twitch

Lips twice

Dimple, Dimple

Punctuated cheeks

Curved, linear

Flashed, broad

Smile.

Smile,

The whispers of laughter

Smile,

So warm it melts a stone cold heart

Smile,

Moon on her face

Reflecting the sun in her heart

Smile,

Mother Nature's tongue

Of happiness, content

Acceptance, Assurance.

Nature never misses a chance to smile

The rain smiles with its morning dew

The sun smiles with its soothing warmth

The trees;

With the graze of their leaf-drops on the skin

Of those who they shelter

The wide grin of the green grass at you

The wind,

Gently breezing caress on your face.

The palms whisper;

"Smile"...

And the ocean broadens shamelessly with a

smile

The sand couldn't resist.

Smile, smile

Unclad your teeth at the stroke of compliments

Comfort the weary with the cloak of your
smile

Out there,

Shoulders are wearied from the weight of life
Knees are knocking from the hard knocks of life

Be a hero

Be the hero

Wear your heart on your face

Smile

Wouldn't you rather spread hope and not germs

Let's heal the world.

I understand; "strictly business",

But never open shop without a smile.

Oh yes,

You do look good,

But you look better when you smile

Smile while you still can

Don't wait till you have to pay for it.

Life is beautiful

Life is ugly

The mirror of life reflects your perception

The view is yours.

Life is hard

Life is hot

Take the hit, fight back

Take the heat, roast your game in it.

Don't live life,

Do it with a smile.
